From Catechist Formation to Vicar for Religious: Sr. Joan Curtin's Remarkable Journey

Sr. Joan Curtin has been a CND Sister for 59 years. She has spent over 40 of those years serving in the administration of the Archdiocese of New York. Her journey began in 1983 when she became Director of Catechist Formation. She then moved on to lead the Archdiocesan Catechetical Office from 1985 until 2021.

The Catechetical Office oversees all parish religious education, including an after-school program that at its peak served over 100,000 children. It also directs the youth ministry and adult faith formation programs throughout the ten counties of the Archdiocese.

In 2021, Sr. Joan was appointed Vicar for Religious. She serves as Cardinal Timothy Dolan's liaison to all religious Sisters and Brothers in the Archdiocese. With 1,800 Sisters and 85 religious congregations, the Archdiocese is among the largest in the country in terms of religious presence.

Sr. Joan notes that while many congregations in the Archdiocese are declining in numbers, some newer congregations are growing. She cites the Sisters of Life and the Franciscan Sisters of the Renewal, who are dedicated to pro-life advocacy and serving the poor and homeless.

One of the highlights of her role as vicar has been getting to know the various congregations and witnessing their impact. She's particularly struck by the cooperative spirit that has blossomed since Vatican II. "We've come to appreciate other congregations as well as our own. We work much more collaboratively now as we follow Jesus in service of the Gospel."

Sr. Joan admires the humility of Sisters, who carry out their work without seeking recognition. She observes, "Sisters don't look for headlines – they just do it. A Sister doesn't even know she's making an impact. It's just who she is. It's coming from her prayer life and life experience - being present to those who come to her."

Having served on the CND Leadership Council three times, Sr. Joan reflects on the changes in her congregation. "We're getting older, but we're still dedicated to supporting our schools and other ministries. We're continually challenged to nurture each Sister, whatever her age, so she has what she needs to live her religious life as fully as possible."

Sr. Joan admires the humility of Sisters, who carry out their work without seeking recognition.

Sr. Joan finds solace in her favorite scripture passage from Romans 8: Nothing can separate us from the love of Christ. "We're not alone," she affirms. "We always have the love of Christ. We can help other people find strength in this reality and to live in this love of Christ for each of us."

Sr. Betty Kehoe: Serving With Love and Compassion for 65 Years

A CND Sister since 1959, Sr. Betty Kehoe began her ministry as a teacher and principal in elementary schools in Illinois. As a principal, she became interested in understanding children's behavior and after moving to Connecticut pursued a degree in family and marriage counseling.

In 1987, she became a casework manager for Catholic Charities Migration and Refugee Service in the Archdiocese of Hartford. "Working with people from different countries," Sr. Betty says, "you have to find a way to connect. There were moments that were sad, and some that were funny. I didn't know what to expect next."

Sr. Betty was then asked to serve in Oklahoma in what she thought would be a temporary position. But from 1990 to 2013, she worked as a Marriage and Family Therapist for the Archdiocese of Oklahoma. She was one of the first counselors for Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese.

Sr. Betty's most wrenching experience was supporting survivors and loved ones of those killed in the 1995

Oklahoma City bombing. "These individuals needed long-term care. I worked with them for months at a time. It was a privilege to work with them but it was hard. I felt I was being healed along with them."

Since 2013, Sr. Betty has been counseling homeless women at the Sanctuary Women's Development Center in Oklahoma City. Sr. Betty says the women are deeply spiritual and "have enormous trust in God even though they're living on the street. They know that we welcome them no matter what."

Now, after 34 years, Sr. Betty, along with Sr. Kay Powers, CND, is preparing to leave Oklahoma. They will join the CNDs at Executive House in Bridgeport, CT. "Marguerite Bourgeoys said, go and serve the people and stay as long as you're needed. We have done that. We have prepared people to fill in our ministries."

Sr. Betty says, "I feel very fortunate to join Sisters who are living together and helping each other." Sr. Kay adds, "We're hoping to add our sense of humor and enjoyment of life. We love to play games and fully intend to continue doing that."

Your generosity helps sustain all our Sisters, whether retired or in active ministry. Thank you!

Long-Time Donors Ginny and Bob Grecco Have Increased Their Support!

Ginny and I were introduced to the good works of the CNDs through our friendship with Sr. Jeanne Bonneau. Sr. Jeanne served as pastoral associate at our parish in Western Springs, Illinois. As time passed and our friendship grew, so did our knowledge of the CND ministries. We have been supporting the Congregation during our lifetime and now have become members of the Legacy Society to continue that support.

Ginny and Bob Grecco just celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary!

Making Sure Sisters Receive the Best Care – Thanks to YOU!

Sr. Kathleen Murphy says she’s experienced the best of both worlds since entering the Congrégation de Notre Dame in 1966. Her first ministry was with elementary school children as a teacher and administrator in New York and Connecticut.

Years later, at the opposite end of the age spectrum, she served retired CNDs at the CND motherhouse in Ridgefield, CT and at Andrus on Hudson, NY. Deeply moved by the Sisters’ spirituality, Sr. Kathleen developed “a great appreciation for what they did and who they were.”

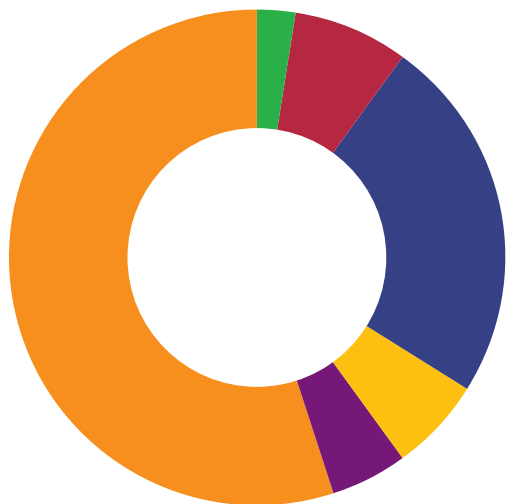

Following this position, Sr. Kathleen became the Director of Mission Advancement for the Congregation. She handled all fundraising and publication duties for Blessed Sacrament (U.S.) Province.

In 2015, Sr. Kathleen undertook her first Midwest mission, to Bourbonnais, IL. She became pastoral associate at Maternity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church, the original U.S. parish of the CNDs. Warmly welcomed by the local community, Sr. Kathleen enjoyed the hospitality and friendliness of the Midwest.

Now retired, Sr. Kathleen lives at Villa Maria Convent in Bronx, NY, with several Sisters she’s known for years. Due to her limited mobility, she receives support from a special helper called a “care navigator.” This individual assists with doctor appointments and manages her health needs. Sr. Kathleen feels well looked after and affirms, “This is the best place to be.”

Your generosity ensures that elderly and retired CNDs receive the best care possible. Thank you!
